

A Trusted Source of Housing and Community Development Research

In 1978, HUD's Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) established HUD User as the primary source for federal government information on housing and housing-related topics such as building technology, economic development, sustainability, and urban planning. HUD User is essential in helping PD&R achieve its mission to inform policy development and implementation to improve life in American communities through conducting, supporting, and sharing research, surveys, demonstrations, program evaluations, and best practices.

RESEARCH

HUD User is a one-stop resource for research from PD&R and HUD. Access over 2,100 research publications spanning the major fields of housing and community development.

DATASETS

HUD User is home to numerous datasets in a variety of formats including: HUD Income Limits, Fair Market Rents, Low-Income Housing Tax Credit data, and Picture of Subsidized Housing. All datasets are available as free downloads; find what you need fast with the dataset reference guide.

U.S. HOUSING MARKET CONDITIONS PORTAL (USHMC)

Use the USHMC portal as a single entry point of access for all national, regional, state, metropolitan, and local data and analysis provided by our field economists. Resources include Housing Market Profiles, Market-at-a-Glance data, Comprehensive Market Analysis reports and much more.

CASE STUDIES

HUD User publishes case studies based on federal, state, and local strategies that increase affordable housing opportunities, apply resilient features and practices, and increase access to public transportation, among other objectives.

PERIODICALS

All periodicals are available from HUD User at no cost:

- Cityscape, published three times a year, is PD&R's journal of policy development and research.
- Evidence Matters, published quarterly, presents objective, evidence-based analyses of research findings about key housing and urban development topics to inform practitioners, advocates, state and local policymakers, Congress, and researchers on future policy directions.
- Insights, published periodically, presents an exploration of a single research topic or question in a concise format.
- Policy & Practice, published periodically, presents innovative solutions for local policymakers and practitioners to address today's housing and community development challenges.

PD&R EDGE

PD&R Edge is a timely online magazine with articles on PD&R and HUD partners' research, a message from PD&R senior leadership, and a wide range of information on housing and community development issues, policies, and case studies.

EVENTS

PD&R organizes a range of convenings designed to explore research and policy in depth. On HUD User, event resources, related reports, and archived video are available.

HUD SECRETARY'S AWARDS

Each year, the HUD Secretary, in collaboration with various associations, recognizes outstanding achievements in housing and urban development by presenting awards in different categories, including Healthy Homes, Excellence in Historic Preservation, and Public-Philanthropic Partnerships.

REGULATORY BARRIERS CLEARINGHOUSE (RBC)

RBC collects and disseminates information on the creation and maintenance of affordable housing through a searchable database of state and local laws, regulations, and policies that promote housing affordability.

THE INNOVATION IN AFFORDABLE HOUSING STUDENT DESIGN AND PLANNING COMPETITION

The annual HUD Innovation in Affordable Housing Student Design and Planning Competition challenges multidisciplinary graduate student teams to respond to an existing affordable housing design and planning issue. Teams are composed of graduate students in architecture, planning and policy, finance, business, and other disciplines. The competition challenges students to address social, economic, and environmental issues in responding to a specific housing development problem identified by a partnering public housing agency.

MAPPING TOOLS

Web-based mapping tools assist grant applicants for HUD programs such as Section 202, Choice Neighborhoods, and Rental Assistance Demonstration.
