Dear Mr. Senhauser:

By this letter the Department is notifying Fannie Mae that it is updating monthly utility allowances for determining affordability under the income-based housing goals in 2007 and 2008. HUD previously modified these allowances in a Notice of Utility Allowances published in the Federal Register on September 3, 2002 (67 Fed. Reg. 56472). However, for 2007 and 2008, this letter will serve as direct notice. We also intend to publish this information on HUD’s website at http://www.huduser.org/datasets/geo.html. The new allowances for 2007 and 2008 will remain in effect until such time as HUD issues direct notice of another revision. The new allowances, which are based on utility costs from the 2005 American Housing Survey, as adjusted for inflation, will become effective on January 1, 2007.

Utility allowances are required under the implementing regulations for the Federal Housing Enterprise Financial Safety and Soundness Act (FHEFSSA) to determine affordability of rental dwelling units under income-based housing goals where tenant income is unavailable, contract rent excludes the cost of utilities, and Freddie Mac does not use HUD Section 8 utility allowances. Utility allowances are not applicable to units where proxy rents are used to determine affordability because HUD’s methodology for determining proxy rents is based on gross rental data.

The monthly utility allowances for 2007 and 2008 are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type of Property</th>
<th>Efficiency</th>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3 or more</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Multifamily</td>
<td>$74</td>
<td>$79</td>
<td>$112</td>
<td>$152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Single Family</td>
<td>$74</td>
<td>$112</td>
<td>$158</td>
<td>$213</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
If you have any questions concerning these utility allowances, please give me a call at (202) 708-2224, extension 2233.

Sincerely,
